ACLD Announces over $302,000 Raised From Annual Enviable Life Ball in Support of Programs Benefiting Adults and Children with Autism, Learning and Other Developmental Disabilities

New York State Comptroller Thomas P. DiNapoli and Carl Grady of Enterprise Fleet Management Honored During Event

GARDEN CITY, NY; October 23, 2019 – Since hosting its annual Enviable Life Ball on October 3, 2019, ACLD Foundation has announced a milestone achievement – raising $302,000 for ACLD (Adults and Children with Learning and Developmental Disabilities, Inc.), the non-profit agency devoted to providing opportunities for children and adults with autism, learning and other developmental disabilities to pursue enviable lives, promote independence and foster supportive relationships within the community.

New York State Comptroller Thomas P. DiNapoli and Carl Grady, Director NY Group at Enterprise Fleet Management were both honored at the event, held at The Garden City Hotel in Garden City, NY.

Comptroller DiNapoli received the 2019 Humanitarian Award, presented by Oyster Bay Town Supervisor and long-time friend Joseph S. Saladino, who spoke highly of DiNapoli's long tenure serving the people of New York State. His remarks brought home the message of a man who has dedicated his entire adult life to public service; a model for fellow elected officials to follow. DiNapoli was recognized for his unwavering support of ACLD and his advocacy for the highest standards in special education.

Grady received the 2019 Corporate Leadership Award for his efforts in supporting people with special needs. As ACLD Foundation Board of Directors President Alan Spiegel, C.P.A., Esq. stated while introducing Grady, "Carl is the person ACLD has turned to over and over again, ensuring the people we support are safe in their daily travels. Day in and day out, his fleet of vans carry our people to ACLD programs. This is a significant responsibility that is fully embraced by Carl and his team."

NBC4 New York traffic reporter Lauren Scala served as emcee for the fifth consecutive year and guests were entertained with live music performed by Skyline Orchestra's Rhapsody. A record-setting 325 people attended ACLD's largest event of the year.
