BOWLING FOR AN ENVIABLE LIFE
RAISES MORE THAN $22,000 FOR ACLD

350 People Pack Farmingdale Lanes at Second Annual ACLD Foundation Event

FARMINGDALE, NY – Bowlers, sponsors and spectators came together on March 26, 2017 at Farmingdale Lanes in Farmingdale, raising more than $22,000 to benefit Adults and Children with Learning and Developmental Disabilities, Inc. (ACLD).

ACLD Foundation's second annual Bowling for an Envable Life FUNdraiser brought people supported by ACLD together with members of the ACLD family, ACLD partners and the community to strike up some fun while helping ACLD pursue its mission of providing opportunities for children and adults with autism, learning and other developmental disabilities to pursue enviable lives, increase independence and foster supportive relationships within the community.

"For the second consecutive year, the people ACLD supports and those who help us pursue our mission enjoyed an incredibly special and rewarding afternoon," said Robert C. Goldsmith, Executive Director of ACLD. "We are grateful to all the bowlers and sponsors who made this event a success."

"Bowling for an Envable Life is a wonderful, fun-filled day that everyone who believes in and supports the ACLD mission can come out and enjoy, along with their families," said Mark Small, CFO/COO of Allegiant Health and ACLD Foundation Board Member. "I was very proud to be involved in this event and to contribute to its success."

More than 350 bowlers participated, and several dozen spectators came to show their support for the bowlers and ACLD. Major sponsors included T-Shirt Sponsor Raia Landscaping; Awards Sponsors Allegiant Health and Larry and Lori Spiegel; and Media Sponsor WBLI-FM.
